

2005 ECU Educational Objectives Assessment Grant Recipients

The Office of Institutional Effectiveness and the University Assessment Committee are pleased to announce the award recipients for the first ECU Educational Objectives Assessment Grant program. The following eight projects were selected for funding:

Assessing Active Learning within Groups in an Introductory Earth Science Class

Dr. Walter Borowski
Department of Earth Sciences

Assessment of Nova Students' Library Skills: Comparing Library Instruction

Approaches for First Year Students
Ms. Lisa Cox
NOVA Program

Development of Assessment Strategies for the Geography Exit Exam

Dr. Bruce Davis
Department of Geography

The ECU Department of Music Performance Assessment Project: Empowering Students in the New Millennium

Mr. Dennis Davis
Department of Music

Assessment of Student Learning within Biological Sciences: Implementation of Pre- and Post-ACAT Tests

Dr. Charles Elliott
Department of Biological Sciences

Assessing Substantive Knowledge in Political Science with a Field Test

Dr. Joe Gershtenson
Department of Government

The Relationship Between Learning Outcomes for English 095 and Teacher Expectations for English 101

Dr. Cindy Moore
Department of English and Theatre

ACAT (Area Concentration Achievement Tests)

Dr. Rose Perrine
Department of Psychology

Project final reports will be shared with the University Community as they become available over the next 18 months.